Hi, anyone! I'm Dave, 29, and last year I started this project called Sleeper in St. Louis. My music has been described by St. Louis' local magazine the River Front Times as "folk, indie singer song writer meets Explosions in the Sky and Sigur Ros." I just started the project last Fall. It's taken fair success in St. Louis, though, I must depart to my new home in Milwaukee come late June.

If you're interested, visit this website to listen to some tracks or watch some vids off the new and only album... www.sleepersound.com

That's right, vids, it's a video art project too. I almost always perform with some video in the background. I'd like to get a few contacts together before July 4th in hopes of having a few meet-ups ready to go soon there after so as not to skip a beat in this project. While, it's already a project with a following in Chicago and St. Louis, already with an album, and a name, your creativity will be highly welcome, respected, and encouraged. Please have a strong growth mindset, be open to feedback (as I am too), be nice, have a desire to play out at least once/twice a month, and have some experience with writing indie/experimental music.

I look forward to hearing from you! Thank you!
