Beautifully restored 1977 honda minitrail z50. Not quite a museum peice, but extremely nice. I wouldn't recommend buying for a child. It's way too nice. Many new parts. Only thing needed is a front brake cable and a kick stand. I've always had it on a motorcycle stand. This bike is near perfect, very reliable. Very, very, well put together. Feel free to ask any questions or request more pictures. Starts first kick. Just an amazing bike all the way around. It absolutley looks as good in person as it does in the pictures. $1200. Priced right with room to make money. I also have an extemly rare 1974 z50 minitrail survivor including original tool kit, WITH TITLE , which is nearly unheard of, if interested for $2600 firm.
