I'm looking for a lhasa aspo puppy or can be a year old. I have no money to spend on one so please only free if your looking to give one away. My uncle just lost is Lhasa aspo recently and is taking it pretty hard. I asked him if he would ever get another one but he said no. But he keeps talking about his little buddy and what they did together every day. So I'm convinced he needs another one. But I would love to find one like his old pal. I'll post a picture if you have any free Lhasa aspo puppy's that looks like his old friend you would be a blessing. Please this would mean a lot to him. You can text me at Thank!
