Hello as you can tell from the title my family and I are looking for a new puppy. We would love to get a Labrador because we used to have a black lab but he passed away a couple years ago. We prefer a black male but would consider other colors. We will be ready to get the puppy end of July or early August. We are also willing to drive to get the puppy so please text me or email me if you have any puppies looking for a new home :) thank!
