Creating a mobile game and need to create some rewards for our kick-starter campaign.

The rewards will include a poster and comic book. The 2d video will be used on the campaign and as a trailer for the game. I do have editing and animation in place, would just need some custom art for the video.

The game is a space fantasy game, need the art to work with the story and theme.

This project is still in it's early stages, would be willing to use a lot of input from the artist about the design of the video and comic book.
