We are a Christian Metalcore band named Wings of the Morning. We are looking for new vocalist. Ideally since we are a Christian metal band, we are looking for a Christian vocalist as well. Our vocalist is sadly moving to Florida. He will be greatly missed.

I am one of the guitar players. My influences are August Burns Red, Killswitch Engage, As I Lay Dying, Haste the Day, Darkest Hour, Poison the Well, Phinehas, War of Ages and so on.

It would be nice to find someone who could sing in key on and off of the stage and have a range of screams. Someone who can be dynamic. Cleans are not a deal breaker but it is preferred.

If you're interested, check out our facebook page and our lyric video for our song Uprising which is linked below. Uprising is the only song we have recorded, but we are currently in the process of recording 5 more tracks. These other tracks are far more melodic and complex and have a lot more leads than the Uprising song below. This song is our simplest example of how we sound until we finish recording our other songs. The other songs can be heard in our live video that is also linked below. The audio quality is surprisingly good for a live video.

Feel free to text me, call me, email me, or message us on our Facebook page. I do work nights so I apologize if it takes me a while to get back to you.
