I am a caring, reliable, loving person looking for a pet sitter/dog walker positon, very good with animals. I am great with dogs and cats (they just naturally love me) and every other animal in between or beyond. I would be very happy to keep your cat or cats company while you're away. Along with the normal feeding and scooping. Looking for a true cat lover to care for your cat(s) while you are away? I will care for your furry loved ones while you are away on business, vacation, during the holidays, for the weekend, or for extended periods of time. During my visits, I will change the water, replenish the food, and scoop the litter box. I will also play with, brush, and sweet talk to your feline friends, giving them lots of special attention. Naturally, if they prefer to be left alone, I would respect this need as well. In addition to my cat sitting services, I will also take care of other "away" necessities such as bringing in your newspaper and/or mail and watering your plants if you desire and housesitting. I make a point of taking my time, keeping the kitties company, providing plenty of and warm loving care References furnished upon request..
