it's a 1985 i believe trek racing bicycle and it's in perfect condition and has been in storage for many years. bought originally in upstate New York by an artist who wanted to do some mountain riding and quickly found out that it's not designed for that kind of riding so He eventually gave it to Me kinda by mistake cause He was sucking up to my hot young friend and had given it to her cause she mentioned a bike or whatever and she then gave it to me right in front of his face.

so the tires and tubes were shot and the shifting was off and I brought it to "Your Bike Shop" in Riverside RI and Joe went right through the bike for me and that cost 150:00 for the tune up, tires and tubes. it takes a unique air filler piece which he gave me but can't find and even though the tires are new I left the bike sitting for 2 years and they both need air and I never went more than a block or 2 with the bike and put it away in storage. so 200:00 I'm told is 100 less than it's real value and I'll take that for the bike if you need this style racing bike.

I can show the bike at Bobs storage Narragansett avenue East Providence. Nobody beats Bobs and at Bobs you always get a good deal. enough already.

I'm selling a nice bike and lost the pictures but they were cool and one had a squirrel hanging out under the bike so it's to bad I lost them.

this is a real post for a real bike that I a really selling at the bank, police station or wherever you want it to be displayed really cause I'm selling the bike and that's.
