If Margaret were one of the seven dwarfs, she would be Bashful. She is sweet, shy, and a hopeless romantic. Margaret is not a little bearded man though, she is a 1 year old, 20 lb, Boston Terrier? mix, female dog. The name Margaret means "pearl" or "saint", both meanings accurately describe her. Margaret knows "sit", she walks well on leash, she is almost completely house and crate trained. She will bark in protest when first placed in the crate but quiets soon after. If not for her occasional accidents, her foster mom would allow her free roam of the house when she's gone because Margaret is non-destructive. Margaret does very well with other dogs, and would do best in a home with another dog to mentor her. She has ignored the cats in her foster home. Margaret loves children but startles easily so she would be most comfortable in a home with older kids.

Margaret is adorable, incredibly affectionate, and loves to go on walks. Her ideal forever home would understand that for dogs like Margaret, trust takes time. Offering her gentle reassurance and patience will reward Margaret's adopters with a lifetime of adoration and devotion. "She's beautiful....just like an angel!" - Bashful.

Margaret is spayed, up to date on vaccinations, and micro-chipped. An application with references, a home visit, and an adoption fee are required to adopt. Reply to this posting for.
