Providence base professional photographer seeks women of all ages for tattoo portrait project. This is a portrait based project and will not require modeling experience. The project is about your tattoo body art and the story behind the art. I am looking to work with women that have encountered a redefining point, a crossroad or an awaking that lead to the creation of the art. Moreover, I am very interested in the depth of your story, and how the art translates your experience. Most importantly, I am looking to create a body of images and stories that will provide an emotional journey that becomes a healing force to others.

You will receive up to ten high resolution digital pictures. There will be no pay for participating within this project.

If your are interested please send a photograph that displays the art and included a brief story about it. The photography for this project will begin this weekend, as of July 10th. The photo session will be approximately two hour in length. Upon your interest - I will forward a link to my website. You are welcome to bring a guest to the photo session. I look forward to working with you. Thank.
