Do you like Obama, Usher, Lil' Wayne, Chris Brown, and/or Jay-Z? If so, this picture is for you! This trendy piece of art depicts the leader of the Free World himself fist bumping one of the most inspirational rappers of all time. This all takes place while some other cool guys hang out around a pool table knocking balls around. The photo is framed in, what I assume to be, real wood... painted black. The frame is in great condition and has no defects, that I know of. You would be a fool to pass this deal up. Contact me for!
