I have a female brindle pitbull that just turned a year old on June 2nd. Due to unforeseen circumstances, I can no longer keep her. I will be extremely picky who she goes to, as she is my baby, and I hate to see her go, period. I will ask you questions about where you live, what you plan on doing with her as in keeping her chained, inside, etc. I will ask potential adopters to sign an adoption agreement stating that if for any reason she's not a good fit for your family too please return her to me, and I will refund your adoption fee. Please, if you're just going to waste my time, don't even bother to inquire about her. I will also ask about other pets in the home, and more personal questions. I'm in no hurry to get rid of her, and she won't just go to the first person who asks me about her. I am requiring a small adoption fee of $100, which is what I paid for her as I feel that's only fair. If you think you may be a good fit for my baby girl, feel free to contact me via text or email anytime, as I don't answer unknown numbers. I will answer any questions you may have about her. She is kid friendly with children of all ages, as I have a 2,4 & 5 year old she plays with. She loves to fetch, and she's a very loving lap dog. She loves to cuddle and just lay by your feet. She's protective of her home and her family. If you feel she may be a good fit for your family, feel free to contact me anytime. Text is the easiest way to reach me. For the right adopter, I would be willing to bring her to you or meet you halfway. If I get bad vibes off of you, I will not reply to you. If you have any questions, I will answer any of them. She is fully house trained, and will wake you up to take her out. Thank you for reading, and have a blessed! =)
