I have sweet seven-yr-old border collie mix that gets along well with kids and enjoys playing with other dogs (as long as they are friendly). She's a "medium" size dog... about 45 lbs.

I would like to find a loving home for her where she can be outdoors primarily. With my work & travel schedule, I can't leave her outdoors as much as she wants to be. If you don't have a yard, it won't be a good fit.

She is.
