I am looking for a free female kitten for my daughter, she lost hers yesterday and is heartbroken. We have a female cat who is about one and is also mourning her buddy. They animal will strictly be inside and receive tons of love and may sleep with who ever she wishes. pls text me or email me with whatever you have . All my kids are over 13 and have had cats all their lives . I'd like to get one this weekend if possible , thank.
