Declawed & spayed, good with kids, NOT good with dogs-big nor small. (She'll growl and hiss but I've never seen anything more than noise and her hiding.) Not sure about other cats. Our home doesn't have anywhere she can escape my toddlers, and she's been wanting to go outside. As a declawed cat, she doesn't need to be outside, though she does come back if she goes out. She's the sweetest thing, she sleeps at our feet & purrs like crazy. I don't really WANT to get rid of her, I just feel like she'd be happier in a more spacious and less hectic home -which should be what matters most. Feel free to message if you have any questions regarding her, or for.
