Hey there,

I have tried this in the past with great results. I am looking to meet other musicians in the area willing to work on projects together. MOST TO ALL WORK WILL BE UNPAID. I know that is a major turn off for most people so wanted to throw it in caps. I occasionally come across paying gigs and we can work out pay if available however this is not typical and should not be expected. Just looking for some people to jam with or whatever.

I am 27, an experienced guitarist, drummer, bassist and producer. My background is anything from folk to electronica to metal and everything in between. 420 friendly and would prefer only over 21 respond.

Some of my work can be found at: <https://soundcloud.com/colsanders>

I have a full service home studio. I am looking for musicians from all walks to collaborate with. This can be anything from remixing existing songs, to working on new productions. I tend to not care much about booking gigs regularly so if that is your thing depending on the work done you would be welcome to preform some of my tracks as well as anything we create.

no need to flag or delete this post. I apologize if I am not prompt in my response.

Cheers!
