Looking for a place to stay that's located in a safe area. I prefer Los Feliz area. I've lived in a house there for 5 years and consider it to be pretty safe. I walk and don't drive so I need to be around 24 hour transit. I often go out to network. I basically need a private room to store my stuff and sleep. I won't take up too much room. Also I would of course need decent wifi.

I'm an early 30 something alum of the top art school in the country. I'm currently working for a top video artist for which I've been interviewed by the New Yorker last year. I'm pretty neat. I'm quiet and keep to myself. Everyone I've lived with in the past have never had an issue with my presence. I've even been call a ghost because I'm so quiet people never know when I'm home. Also roommates have said to me that living with me is kind of like living all by themselves because I'm usually out of the house or quiet in my room. Gay friendly is key. (I'm not interested in anything sexual.)

For more info please email me. Could pay more depending on the situation.

Thanks,
