Roofers, Handyman, and General Contractors needed to fill request for jobs that we have in your area.

We have created a lead program that puts you in total control of your budget. The name of the service is Talk Local, we have been operating for five years now, as the popularity of the program grows we have decided to advertise on Craigslist as we understand that there is abundance of great contractors on Craigslist.

You only pay for the leads when you speak with the actual customer and you two engage in a business conversation pertaining to the work that the customer needs done. Essentially you will only pay for the conversations that you choose to go after, we allow you to listen to the lead for free, which is virtually unheard of in modern Lead Generations programs.

If you are not able to have a conversation with the customer then you are not charged anything. You will only pay $13-$25 per conversation that you choose to have. I have more information on this program that is already being used by hundreds of contractors in the Boston area. If you want to learn more about how we operate or if you are interested in signing up then please feel free to respond to the ad with your contact information and I will get with you at my earliest convenience, most of the times I will contact you that same day and we can have your account up and running on the day that you contact me.

Many contractors in the Boston area will start receiving leads about within the first 1-2 days after they have signed up with us. Your lead volume will depend on a number of factors (service radius and type of work). Even if you do not deal with lead generation, you can absolutely not afford to pass up this opportunity to at least listen to how this could benefit your business. Contact me today, I look forward to speaking with you, take.
