We're a newly formed band (Rock/Alternative/Eclectic) with experienced performers playing mostly original material and looking to gig out! Since we're new to town and/or played mostly in cover bands previously, we are looking to make stronger connections with venues for original bands. If you are looking for someone to fill a slot or are interested in sharing a bill, please check out our work and let us know if you are interested.

questionsinletters plays glaringly original rock music, weaving genres into a tight package with distinct style and fluidity. Packed with words, its work is vast and the eclectic journey is just far out enough to hook you in. It is layered and complex without losing ease of enjoyment. Listeners may envision Frank Zappa having coffee with XTC or Tom Waits shaking hands with Steely Dan while some jazz cat peeks in through the window. Others have also mention hearing Captain Beefheart and Tragically Hip, for example. questionsinletters cannot be easily filed or delineated.

questionsinletters is the brain child of Steve Siekkinen, who has relocated to the Washington, DC area. He has re-formed the project in the mid-atlantic region.

Steve Siekkinen -- songwriter, guitar, vocals, theremin, percussion
