If you're a couple that is infertile, or perhaps a lesbian couple wanting to conceive a child.

No need to get artificially inseminated. No need to spend lots of money.

I am a black male gentleman in my late 40's, and I help couples conceive

I do this because I believe a man is put on this earth to multiply, and it is my calling to help people with these issues.

I do ask that you take a test for VD, and so I will too. Any costs involved with that you would be responsible for. As well as a little for my gas and time.

I enjoy spending time with women, and it is such a pleasure to help someone and create new life.
With this said, it is agreed that my role in this is only to help you conceive a child.
All obligations with parenthood will belong solely to you and your significant other.

If you are planning to be a single parent, keep in mind if I do this for you. You will be the sole person responsible for the child. I would like to meet you and be sure that you are ready and able to take care of the child as well.

Responsibility of a child is a big one, are you ready for this? I know I am ready to help. I want for you to send me mail two pictures of yourself, or as a couple, so we can arrange to meet, once in person.

I am potent, and useful. If you know I'm just the right person for you, once I feel it's enough to give this gift that god gives us. I will show you pictures of my beautiful children, because I make beautiful babies.

This is a real add, I am a real.
