 The black and white cat is Truffles. She is super friendly. And loves everyone. Very quickly adapts to new surroundings. Does not mind being held or picked up.
 The yellow one is Gabby. She is also friendly it just takes her a little longer to get used to people, she doesn't care to be picked up. But if your sitting down, she will climb up on your lap.
 Both girls are spayed. UTD on shots until 2016. Both have tested negative for feline lukimia. Litter box trained. Are not afraid of dogs. Not declawed, but used to having their nails trimmed. They are both exactly two years old this July.
 What will come with them is a three tear cat tree. Food and water dishes. Cat food and container. (What ever I have left). And two cat carriers. Brand new. Two cat beds.
 These two must stay together. They get along great together. And I could not separate them. I got them both at two different times, and what usually takes six months, took them three days! And have been best buds ever since.
 I am looking for some loving people looking to give a couple really good cats a home. Please no young children. I'm having to part with them cause I can't afford to take care of them. This really breaks my heart, I love my girls. I just can't afford to pay for things like flea medicine and vet care.
 Rehoming fee of 50$ and you will get everything.
