Huge TV. Samsung DLP LED 61" TV. Great picture. No issues. It's a DLP, so about 12" deep. Since it's LED projection, the lamp should last many more years. You'll want a fancy future TV before you'll need to replace the bulb in this one. It's also pretty light, so two people can easily lift it--even one person if your arms are long enough.

Model: HLT6187SAX/XAA

I have been watching this daily for 2 years or so, and have never had any issues with it.
