Hi I recently got a place we arnt officially moved in yet but I want to start the search for our new fur baby we have a small one year old chocolate lab weenie mix that the adult/puppy will be living with we have a huge fenced in back yard free roam of the house and lots of car rides and dog parks we go swimming a lot and we do a lot of outside things so we would like a active dog now hears the catch this dog will be becoming my emotional support dog helping me with my anxiety nerves social issues and depression ... You get the gist. So this dog must be smart and willing to learn I will be willing to pay a SMALL rehoming fee nothing above 100$ please as I will have to pay with the gear and everything needed for his or her arrival :) gender doesn't matter and age as long as the fur baby is below the age of 7 everything is perfect disabilities welcomed as they need love as well please if you think you have a fur baby that you think would be a good fit as my new family member and my helper please text or email me at the givin above with pictures and a description your location and your name thank you for
