Hello, my name is Jason. I am a hardworking guy in my early 30's. I've had the same job for some time noe in retail and have to be face to face with customers. My teeth are really bad and I can't afford what it will take to fix them. I tried going to a discount dental facility once and they destroyed my mouth. Aside from the fact I'm affraid of the dentist because of past experiences, I'm finding that I no longer smile, laugh or am the person I was. I'm so depressed over this. It's so expensive and I don't know what to do. It's a big deal to hide talking and smiling. It's absolute misery. I'm writing this to see if there is anyone out there who has the heart to donate some dental work and help me? hey it's worth a shot!?. Thank you for taking the time to read this.
