The PROJECT: Cosmeceutical Skincare brand founded by 20 Medical Doctors - needs freelance writer to create our brand training manual - a document that teaches our sales team to understand our skincare products, their ingredients and functions, and the general physiology, biological process and conditions of the skin: desquamation cycle, formation of riddles, photo damage, ance, pigmentation etc.

The KEY: Ability to understand this information - and then write about in simple english, with "apples and orange" examples easily understood by sales staff yet scientifically acceptable for acuracy by our doctors.

Working from home is fine - but you must be in the Las Vegas Metro area - so you can attend editing sessions and meetings at our office on the project.

MUST BE COMPLETED within 3 weeks from the start. Further assignments available after this one.
