We have a 1 1/2 year old Pit/Lab mix named Hercules. We are looking to rehome him to someone who has room for him to run and has more time to play with him and work with him. He knows how to sit, and loves to play with toys and sticks. He rarely barks or growls only does when he's playing for the most part. He comes with his kennel, training leash and leather collar, he is already fixed. He already had his shots but we have no records because we rescued him due to his previous owner abandoning him. He's good with all kids but older kids that can handle him easier would be preferred. He is also good with other dogs and cats, he has a lot of energy and loves people and attention. We are asking a $100 rehoming fee to help ensure he is going to a good.
