Hello, I am a victim of David Mejia. He sexually molested me for years when I was just a 7 year old boy. He was my brothers best friend but also my predator. He convinced me that everybody does it and its normal further damaging me and possibly people around me at that age. I thought this was not a big deal for most of my life and the depression and overwhelming sadness was normal as well. Until recently when this monster tried to contact me on Facebook I had swept it under the rug. I did not accept his invitation of which led me to a very dark depression following. David Mejia is his name and sadly he is married with children. I know of at least 2 other people he has done this to.

If you know David Mejia, he took down his post before I could grab a pic. He is a wannabe Latino and dresses like it. He is fat with a bald head with a very large round neck. He has a brother named Jesus and a Mom named Norma. He lived in Riverside, CA when this happened. I figured he moved away when one of the children he was molesting told their parents. One day they were here and then they were gone and just like that, the molestation stopped.

Why would he try and contact me, like its a sick twisted little game that he still fantasizes about.

If you see David Mejia, just know that he helped ruin a child's life, because I will never be the same as that was the start of a long painful childhood. Don't let your children around this person. You will regret it.

Monsters come in all kinds of shapes and forms. They hide their intentions with care as they are manipulators and will say what they have to say to gain your trust.
