Interested in Real Estate Investing - We Can Help You Get Started

Who we are:

Local real estate investing community that offers weekly study groups, monthly workshops and mentorship programs.

What we do:

We deal in the foreclosure market and REO real estate investing market. We focus on bringing all aspects of real estate investing together from finding and negotiating the foreclosures and short sales to matching the deals up with long term investors or rehabbers looking for short term profits. We also do subject-to, work with pro-bates, lease options, property acquisitions/residential, commercial and much more.....

Description:

We are seeking assistance from entry level to executive level consultative sales, marketers, real estate and mortgage professionals to expand resources in your market in both real estate and marketing businesses.

We are always expanding our partner base with the four levels of real estate as our focus. All beginning investors will start wholesaling without having to worry about using their money or credit and with experience to move through the levels while getting paid and sharing in the profits.
