I'm looking for the right girl to do some experimental adult content for fun and profit. I have a variety of projects in mind which include one-off things, repeat gigs, faceless anonymous content, amateur adult content, and some artsy projects having to do with written erotica, illustrated books, music videos, and more. In short, I like to create things. I'm producing a variety of fun erotic stuff that I can sell. I'm looking for a partner in crime. Let's have fun and make some money.

I'm interested in creating some classy artistic material, some very kinky content, and some things in between. You should be comfortable with thousands of people watching you do things to yourself.

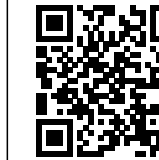

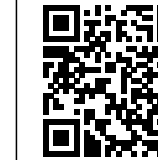

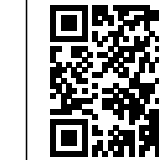

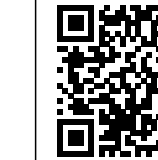

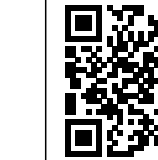

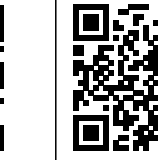

If you think you might be interested in a career along these lines, this would be a good, safe, low impact way to test it out. I'm also interested in helping someone launch a successful career.

I have background in digital marketing, all types of media production, theater, film, music, photo, video, etc. I'm adept at internet technology, website development, and online privacy. Basically, I have everything but the girl! I've had a lot of interested parties but none were a great match yet.

I need someone young, female, fit, at least a little curvy, any ethnicity is fine. Piercings and tattoos are fine, provided they are tasteful. You should be genuinely interested in exploring a variety of types of content. I'm not interested in encouraging someone to do things that they don't also reasonably enjoy. I prefer that you have not worked in the industry before, as the way I do things is more like a normal production company and business than you'll typically find there. You should be over 21, and should look between 18 and 28.

You will NOT be required to reveal your face on camera. The material WILL be graphic in nature, though you would start off with some simpler performances.

If this sounds like something you'd enjoy please inquire for more details and let me know why you're interested. It's important that you answer this question thoughtfully, or I will not consider your response.
