Are you a female food-loving writer looking for a way to hone your skills? Or have you always wanted to write about food but didn't have an outlet for it?

My name is Julianne and I run Girls on Food, an online food blog.

I'm currently on the hunt for Female Bloggers from all over the world to contribute to our website. Whether you live in a big city or a little town, we'd love to hear from you. Girls on Food is a foodie blog where restaurant reviews, recipes and new are all served fresh to readers by our bloggers Monday - Friday.

All posts are currently not paid, but there are perks to writing for us I can discuss via email.

The site runs through Wordpress, and we communicate via private group on Facebook.

If you're interested in hearing more about how to become a part of our team, please email a bio and a writing sample to the mail relay.
