hmmm.... what category to post.... I have 4 hand painted panels - 2 currently being used as doors, the other two are hinged and used as a decorative headboard.

Just under 32" wide, I have truly enjoyed the doors in my office and the panels to separate work spaces. Now is time to give them a new home. Shown in the pictures, front and back, of the single door panel.

Contact me; let's talk. I am willing to sell all of them as follows:

single door panels - $150 each
 two panel hinged - $275

Purchased in an antique shop years ago, the are in mint condition and would be perfect in a little girls room or in a home with a cottage feel.

Serious inquiries only. Thank.
