Timmery.com is in search of a creative and versatile assistant who loves fashion, art, music and edge! I am in search of a creative unicorn that can wear many hats and doesn't mind getting dirty every once in awhile in a fun and positive atmosphere.

I'm looking for someone who is trustworthy, loyal, and can truly grasp my artistry and brand. And doesn't mind wearing a thousand different hats!

Job tasks will include:

- Selling at Art Fairs & Shows (as well as setting up and tearing down every once in awhile)
- Assisting with Social Media
- Helping Timmery remain organized
- Assisting with various art and fashion projects (cutting, packaging, prepping, etc)
- Helping Timmery manage her online shops
- And so much more! :))

This person must have a great fashion sense, is out going, personable, organized, upbeat & fun! I would prefer someone with an art or fashion background, but I am willing to train the right person.

This will start off as a part time gig, but there are opportunities to grow and gain more hours if you're a true rock!
