We are a local metal/heavy rock band in need of a replacement front man.

We are pretty new to the metal local scene but have built a solid name for ourselves. We've been together for almost 2 yrs and have been playing locally and some out of town gigs for a over a year. We have a full set list and are in the process of writing more songs. We've played with Nonpoint, Mindset Defect, and Super Bob.

Once we find the right man we have a studio waiting for us and a "manager" who is ready to book weekend tours.

We are looking for someone to own it on stage and give a good show along with incredible singing abilities. Screaming and cleans are a must.

We don't really have much in the way of recordings but I can send what we do have. We had an 8 song demo recorded for us for free but did not come out the way we expected. Look us up on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and we also have a website www.once-thefallen.com

Reply with links of your recordings and pictures. Whatever you have send it to us and we will respond if we like what you do and have you come out for an audition. Must be available EVERY WEEKEND. We want to take this as far as possible. Quit our jobs and everything.

We have music we can send you via.
