

Foxhound (Montpelier)

Scarlett is still looking for the right home. She is a very goofy, affectionate girl! Not at all timid like a lot of ex-hunters. She has been spayed and vaccinated and taught MANNERS. She is great with other dogs, cats, and children (she currently lives with all of these). Scarlett is housebroken and loves to lay around in her doggy bed or dance around playing with toys. Despite all her good points she has one major flaw: she loves to kill chickens! This is the reason she can no longer stay with us. Please understand this breed - they can be very hardheaded/stubborn and take a lot of patience and consistency. We gave her a good foundation and a lot of love, she's ready to share the love with a family of her.
