Henry is an older gentleman! he is probably 6-7yrs old. He was dumped so we do not know very much about him. He gets along well with mellow kids but seems a bit upset with younger kids running around and yelling.

He gets along fine with other dogs and mostly seems to want to lay around and sleep! He is quite the dignified personage. We are unsure if he his potty trained or not! I believe he would be fine with other dogs and cats. He is 15-20lbs so I'd consider him a small dog but others might consider that to be medium.

He is free to a good home that will agree to have him neutered. We just gave him a parvo/distemper booster shot.

Must be willing to come pick up in the far west!
