This is Wade! he is a 3-4mo old shepherd mix puppy that was dumped. He is super sweet and very submissive. We think he might be mixed with chihuahua. I think he will be around 30lbs when he is fully grown.

He is good with other dogs, likes kids, and would probably be fine with cats! We just gave him a parvo/distemper shot so he has had at least one.

He is still a puppy and I don't know if he has been taught anything so his new parents will need to work on house manners and potty training. He is very eager to please and I think he will make an excellent family dog.

We are located in the far west valley and you must be willing to come pick him up! there will be a small rehoming fee of $20 for.
