Hi! So, if the title wasn't a dead giveaway, I'm interested in playing some sludge/doom metal, in the vein of bands like Thou, Indian, Boris, Electric Wizard, early Sword, etc. I'm a 25 year old guitarist with about 10 years of experience (6 of them meaningful). Although I can do lead in a pinch, I'm much more comfortable in a rhythm sort of role. I've played a lot of Sonic Youth/My Bloody Valentine style stuff, so that might leak in. I'm a big fan of black metal, too, so that also tends to end up in my playing.

Although I've got an 8-5 job right now, I'd love to play some shows around Denver and maybe do some touring. If you're interested in getting a project going like this or you're looking for a rhythm guitarist, just let me know and I can send you some samples of my.
