We are looking for an exceptional full-time nanny (with the possibility of night care if interested) for our three children: our newborn twins that are due in October and our 2 year old son. We are seeking an exceptionally responsible and reliable professional with experience caring for newborns and for multiple children at once. We seek a nanny who can manage meticulous care of our children as well as housekeeping. We will verify past experience with references. We expect that our nanny has transportation, is a non-smoker and is comfortable with pets as we have one dog. Our son will begin preschool in August on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 9:30-12:30. We plan to extend his hours in preschool after his initial adjustment period. Therefore, primary care will focus on our newborn twins once they are born.
