Hello, I hope you are well. I am new here on this website. This might sound a little odd but I am a very busy 25 year old guy looking for female companionship in NYC. I am a nice, educated, respectful person and I hope I do not sound rude or insulting with my message.

I am looking for a young (18-27) very beautiful woman for discreet, intimate and normal fun together. I will donate between 1400-2400 dollars for one hour of companionship. The monetary donation is given solely for your time. Anything else that may occur would be a matter of personal choice between two consenting adults of legal age, and is not contracted for, nor is it requested to be contracted for, nor compensated for in any manner.

This is not an ad for adult films, porn or any types of illegal acts. So if you are looking for anything like this then look elsewhere please. However if you are at the moment struggling financially and are actually considering a quick stint in the adult business then this might actually be a better and nicer option for you.

If you are interested please send a few face and full body photos along with a way to contact you, preferably phone number. Any responses that do not include the information requested will be automatically deleted.

Do not worry as your contact information will be strictly ensured with the highest levels of privacy.

Only serious inquiries please.

do NOT contact me with unsolicited services or offers.

Thank you and I hope you have a good
