About Us:

orlandocraft.com is designed by locals and is designed for locals. On this website, people will be able to find local Orlando talent and will be able to see the talent at work. The site is broken down into the 6 categories mentioned above. Here's the fun part. The public will be able to vote for talent in each category and the competition will run monthly from the 1st until the 30th or 31st (depending on the month). The talent that is featured on the website will also be able to freely check how many votes they have.

SECURITY MEASURES ARE IN PLACE TO PREVENT UNFAIR VOTING (Terms and Conditions). This is a great opportunity to gain MORE exposure in a fun and competitive environment. People that would not have known about you will be visiting this site, so you will be able to gain more attention and

MALE MODELS:

The Male Models section will have a listing of 15 local Orlando models for the respective month. You are able to stay on the site, if you choose, or you can just be on it for one month. Visit orlandocraft.com so you can see the website. All we need to do is fill in the pictures and information with YOU! OrlandoCraft has just been released, so it is filled with generic pictures and information until we fill everything in with you. When we fill in all the pictures and information, we will open up voting to the public. Winners are chosen at the end of each month and will be invited to our monthly winners' networking event that includes dinner. Prizes also include things like tanning salon packages, gym memberships, gift cards, and more! Winners will also be permanently featured in our Winners section that will include an interview with OrlandoCraft and a bio. Feel free to like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter. Contact us if you're interested or if you have any.
