

?? MEET THE WORLD!!! ?? Host an international student this SUMMER!! Become a homestay family!

KINGS Education Boston (in the Chestnut Hill area) is looking for caring, fun, unique, open, and friendly families to welcome our students into their homes and lives this summer!

Our students range in age from 16 -- 35 or older and are studying English to improve their lives! They're looking for welcoming, open-minded families near bus or train stations with easy access to Chestnut Hill. We're looking for families NOW for the 2015 summer but have incoming students ALL YEAR.

Host for as little as two weeks or as long as 9 months or more. YOU pick the students and YOU pick the dates!

- Weekly stipend paid for room and board
- Full training and support
- International students from all over the world
- New students starting every week
- Short and long-term placements available

Please contact our recruiting manager at ext. 112 or by email at recruiting@universityofcalifornia.edu for more details.

Not enrollible on this site and students: If you have a space on this site going to your college, you are not eligible to apply for this position. We would love to hear from you!

We offer competitive weekly compensation and have a dedicated support team.

We are currently looking for hosts near train or bus stations whose homes are within 50 minutes via train or bus from our school in Chestnut Hill. If you are near train or bus stations in the Chestnut Hill, Newton, Brookline, Waban, Roslindale, West Roxbury, Jamaica Plain and Watertown areas, we may be able to place students with you!
