

Lost Wedding Ring

Location Minnesota

I lost my wedding ring over the July 4th weekend. I had packed it in my bag to go up north and when I went to look for it while I was camping at Arnesons resort in Lake of the Woods the ring was gone. I live just west of Minneapolis so the ring could be anywhere unfortunately.

The ring has huge sentimental value for me as my husband picked it out for me on his own. I am offering a REWARD if anyone finds it.

I don't know much about rings but this is the information I have from when he bought it: ladies 14 karat white gold illusion head diamond engagement ring, with one .20 carat center diamond surrounded by eight .035 carat round diamonds. There are 52 diamonds, weighing .007 carats each in the woven style sides. Diamonds are G in color, SI1 in clarity. I also added a wedding band with multiple additional small diamonds in a woven style that was attached.

If found please contact me as it has great meaning to me and cannot be replaced # I apologize the picture is not.
