At Repercussions, we pride ourselves on having a relaxed, laid-back atmosphere with the quality, commitment, and equipment line-up of a major recording studio. Located on Northern Liberties district of Philadelphia. The recording studio is in an unassuming renovated warehouse, surrounded with inspiring talent that spans across various forms of art. Repercussions Recording Studio was started by producer, mixing, mastering engineer Andrew Ha in 2008.

For just $40/hr we are offering a full service recording studio with an experienced engineer. We have the gear and experience that is comparable to that of any major studio.
