I am looking for musicians whom are skilled in the following genres: Jazz, Jazz Fusion, Blues, Rock, Progressive Rock, Progressive Metal, and Death Metal.

I posted this ad because I am looking for a guitarist and bassist, or band, whom are fluent in playing these genres of music and would like to either:

- A.) Jam
- B.) Start A Project
- C.) Start a band.
- D.) Are already in a band that contains music of said genres, and need a second guitarist.
- Or
- E.) Are willing to jam/practice/work on new material, and might consider starting a band up down the line.

I currently jam very consistently on the regular with my friend, whom is a drummer; and we pretty much jam on these genres and have material already written that flows pretty nicely. I've been in several bands throughout my lifetime. Overall, I'm really just looking for people to vibe with on a level of musicianship that I have virtually never had; because finding people who can endlessly fuse genres like this are very rare and hard to find these days. Atleast where I live. If this sounds like something you might be interested in, feel free to message me anytime.

P.S:

For what it's worth, I have professional gear concerning Recording, Amplification, and Video.

I am not by any means restrictive to the above mentioned instruments. If you Sing/Scream, play Piano, Violin; or anything else for that matter - I would definitely like to get in touch.

Thank you for your time.

Cheers,
