I'm selling my 2001 Nissan Maxima! It want stay crunk, I was told it was the memory box (pcm,ecm).. it did have a idling problem.. I got a new idling control value put on .. & the Nissan people said the computer box is bad .. I called to see how much it'll be to get it reprogrammed & rebuilt , the man said $243.. With me being in school & tryna work, I can't afford not having transportation. . I've put alot of money into the car & just getting frustrated with tryna figure out how to send off the memory box to be fixed.. So i just said I'll sell the car ! It has two new tires, needs the drivers side front tire replaced .. I was gonna get it replaced after I found the tire , but the car broke down on me! It runs well .. just needs the memory box fixed , so it can stay Crunk ! Has a sunroof , cd/aux player , tinted windows, a new idling control value, new battery.. for more info please feel free to email or text me ! Thank you .. Can send pics to your phone! I do have the title in hand .. I'm asking 3000 OBO !
