   Hi I had to hotspots that I purchased both at Walmart one of them cost me $80 and the other one cost me 40 I'm going to post the links so you can see exactly what they cost and what they are. They both were perfectly fine I've never had a problem with either one. I just don't need them anymore because my iPad is no longer working plus I could use the extra money to fix my car and get it inspected. So check out the links and if you want to grab one or both give me a call back thanks so much for Christie

   I'm charging about half of the price of what I paid for each one.
