Hello! I am currently (almost) 7 months pregnant expecting my second child. I am looking for a family with an open mind and heart. I am looking to start nannying again when my second daughter arrives, where I can bring her along with me. I have been working with young children ages 6weeks -5yrs and school age to 10years for 10 years both in a large center setting as well as an in home nanny. I graduated Essex Technical Center with my certification in Child Care and Human Services, have well over 130 hours in child development training, I am both CPR and First Aid certified and I have a clean driving record for lots of fun trips into the community. If your family is looking for a nanny starting in November Please send me an email so we can set up a time to speak!

Thank you
