Local drummer 46 years old. With some serious skills and chops, seeks lead and rhythm guitarist to form a local classic hard rock band. I'm talking Floyd, sabbath, dio, van Halen, the list goes on and on. I'm married 25 years, full time job, and 2 children, so I know the deal. I want to do this for fun and the fact that I'm loosing my mind in the man cave by myself. If we kick some ass wouldn't mind playing out local every now and then. The bassist I play with also has some serious skills and chops. Let's have some damn fun. I have plenty of practice.
