Brendy was abandoned on one of the coldest days we had this past winter. She made her way to the front door of a local drugstore crying to get in. One of the staff took her in for the night and called our rescue. Brendy is around 1 year old and, after several weeks of growth, we believe she is a Catahoula mix. She loves people and loves to rough house with other dogs. Even though she does not try to hurt any of the large, medium, or small dogs at her foster's home, we would suggest if she goes to a home with other dogs that it be a high energy medium to large dog and a home with children 5 or older. Brendy is up to date on her vaccines, is housebroken, crate trained, and spayed. She is also heart worm negative. She is in the process of learning how to be polite on a leash and doing very well
