I have written a children's book called "The Dream Warriors" paperback is available online via Amazon, as well as from my own website (dwbears.com). I have also converted the paperback book into an EBook that is available online via Kindle, as well as a Video Book complete with a narrator, themed music, character voices and sound effects. This video book version is sold exclusively from my website.

The Dream Warrior story was created to help children conquer their bad dreams and nightmares. We do this by introducing characters in our book that have been specifically trained to combat whatever "bad guy" might be found in a child's dreams. We have received exceptional reviews from kids and parents who have bought the book, and have seen enough of a demand to take the next step!

Currently we are completing our children's "Lullaby Album" which will be available on a CD or as a Download. We will offer this albums on iTunes, Amazon Music and of course my own website. I am also working with a teddy bear manufacturer in Los Angeles to bring to life our characters in a real life Dream Warrior Teddy Bear!

I am looking for an investor who can fund out initial inventory and soft launch marketing campaign. This soft launch will include a 60 day Google AdWords campaign. This campaign has been designed to generate sales, and collect data that will help us to better identify our target demographic but also penetrate it as effectively!

I am looking for $2,500 - $5,000

I am looking to enter any reasonable person who is willing to make an offer based on your investment amount.
